INSTRUCTIONS

- (1) Write the entire message plainly on the other side within marginal lines.
- (2) PRINT the name and address in the two panels provided. Addresses to members of the Armed Forces should include rank or rating of the addressee, unit to which attached, and APO or Naval address.
- (3) Fold, seal, and deposit in any post office letter drop or street letter box.
- (4) Enclosures must not be placed in this envelope and a separate V-Mail letter must be sent if you desire to write more than one sheet.
- (5) V-Mail letters may be sent free of postage by members of the Armed Forces. When sent by others postage must be prepaid at domestic rates (3c ordinary mail, 6c if air mail is desired).

* POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT PERMIT NO. 1

V-Mail Service provides the most expeditious dispatch and reduces the weight of mail to and from personnel of our Armed Forces outside the continental United States. When addressed to points where micro-film equipment is operated, a miniature photographic negative of the message will be made and sent by the most expeditious transportation available for reproduction and delivery. The original message will be destroyed after the reproduction has been delivered. Messages addressed to or from points where micro-film equipment is not operated will be transmitted in their original form by the most expeditious means available.

Hello, Joe,

Just a few minutes till it gets dark enough to go to the movies, so I'll spurt out a Vmail. - But I know I won't get to finish it - but will take off again early tomorrow morning before I take off otherwise. - Later - two days in fact! - And you're lucky I'm here today! - Yesterday another mission and today I was trying to get on a trip to Algiers, but that fell thru. - See, - I'm a busy man, at times. - Sometimes I loaf & other I can hardly keep up with myself!

Had a pleasant surprise when I got back yesterday. Found the package with my camera & candy had arrived, - both in good condition. - It sure made good time as the postmark was the 17th of August! - Don't know what happened to the other package mail earlier that you keep yarning about. - Guess it too will be there soon, now.

Sorry I can't fix Blondie up with the parachute. She's a little too close to the ground, in the bicycle basket, and before she could react, am afraid she would be on the ground. - Even the paratroops have to be higher than that. - Tell you what we'll do. Next time I'm home, we'll take her up and kick her out from a couple of thousand feet. - Then we'll know whether she has the sense to pull the rip cord if given time for her reactions to set in! - I can hear her (and Marion) yelling now! - Boy - your vacation sure brought forth lots of letters. - Keep it up - and maybe I'll see what I can do with my nose!

V...-MAIL

More Later. Joe
